Newspapers by ancestry
https://www.newspapers.com/image/881518689/

Downloaded on Feb 18, 2026

THE SENTINEL.

Friday Morning.....October 1, 1926.

Local and Personal

Town and Country.

The New York Free Methodist Conference, held at Rockville, returned Rev. W. E. Frederick as pastor of the Rockville Church for another year.

It has been announced that the October meeting of the Montgomery County Civic Federation will be held in Rockville, with the Chamber of Commerce as host.

Robert N. Baylis has sold his residence in the eastern section of Rockville to Mrs. Ezra L. Royer, of this town, for $5,000. Mr. and Mrs. Baylis have removed to Trenton, N. J.

Tudor U. Heeter, Jr., and Miss Thelma P. Small, both of Washington, were married at Gaithersburg on Wednesday of last week by Rev. Wm. Stevens, pastor of Grace Methodist Church at that place.

The Quarterly W. M. U. Group meeting will be held at Barnesville on Friday, October 8th—morning session at 11 o'clock and the afternoon session at 2 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Chiswell, of Dickerson, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Edna Chiswell, to Mr. Warner E. Pumphrey, of Rockville. The wedding will take place in November.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of Montgomery County will be held in St. Peter's Church, Poolesville, on October 8th, beginning at 10 A. M., with the celebration of Holy Communion. Basket lunch.

W. Russell Brewer, formerly cashier of the Montgomery County National Bank here, and for the last several years treasurer of the Liberty Trust Company of Cumberland, Md., has been made president of the Cumberland institution.

Free Methodist Church, Rockville, Rev. W. E. Frederick, Pastor. Sabbath—Sunday School at 9:45 A. M.; class meeting at 11 A. M.; sermon at 7:30 P. M. Week day—Prayer meeting Thursday at 7:30 P. M. You are invited.

William Skillman, aged 83 years, Union Veteran of the Civil War, died last Tuesday at his home near Rockville. He lived alone and was found dead by a neighbor. He was a native of New Jersey, but had lived here more than 35 years.

John W. Lucas, a well known farmer, died last Monday at his home near Rockville, aged 75 years. Surviving him are several sons and daughters. Mr. Lucas was a native of Virginia, but had lived in this county for the last 30 years.

William McBain, Mayor of Gaithersburg and a well-known business man of that town, and Miss Orra Atley, of Purcellville, Va., were married on Wednesday of last week at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Atley, Purcellville.

According to Clyde Harriss, Deputy State Game Warden, the impression is rather widespread that a license is required to fish in the waters of Montgomery county. He states that such is not the case. Severe penalties are provided, however, for fishing out of season, he wants the public to bear in mind.

The Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company, it is understood, is arranging to expend something over $11,000 in enlarging and improving that portion of its plant lying within the territory served by the Kensington central office. Work will be started within the very near future, according to the company officials.

At the last meeting of the Olney District Farm Bureau a recommendation of the legislative committee favoring an appropriation for a girls' dormitory at the Uni-

Two New Humorists.—In the Magaziae of The Washington Star, beginning next Sunday, October 3rd, Milt Gross and Donald Ogden Stewart, two of America's leading humorists, will become regular contributors. Stewart is writing a new series, "The Other Day," for Star readers, and Gross continues his "Nize Baby" stories. Watch for these features in next Sunday's Washington Star, and order your copy from your newsdealer today.

The funeral of Miss Julia Anderson, aged and lifelong resident of Rockville, who died here on Thursday of last week after a long illness, took place Saturday afternoon from the home of her nephew, Walter A. Williams, in Rockville, the services being conducted by Rev. Millard F. Minnick, rector of Christ Episcopal Church. Burial was in Rockville Union Cemetery. Miss Anderson, who was a daughter of the late Dr. John W. Anderson, of Rockville, and a sister of William W. Anderson, of Washington, was 89 years old.

The first meeting of the Poolesville Community League, after the summer vacation, was held last week in the auditorium of the Poolesville High School. Following a program of music and other features by pupils of the Poolesville school and others officers to serve for one year were chosen as follows: President, J. Fur White; vice-president, Marshall Hersperger; secretary, Mrs. Thomas R. Hall; treasurer, Chas. W. Woodward. Chairmen of the various committees were also named. The Poolesville Band played. The meeting was conducted by the retiring president, Chas. W. Woodward.

James Magruder, of Cabin John, held in the jail here on the charge of assault with intent to kill, in connection with the shooting last Saturday night, of Harvey Lowe, of Cabin John, at Magruder's home, will not be released on bail until it is certain that Lowe will recover, according to Judge Samuel Riggs, of the police court. Lowe is in Emergency Hospital, Washington, suffering from three bullet wounds in his arm, chest and back. His condition is said to be serious. Frank Graham, of Washington, held here as a material witness, will be released upon furnishing $500 bond.

The observance of Rally Day at the Baptist Church, Rockville, last Sunday brought out a large attendance at Sunday School and a large congregation at church A class of nine was promoted from the primary to the junior department. The special musical program conducted by Mrs. Howard M. Blandy, in the evening, was greatly enjoyed by the large number present. Next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the pastor, Rev. B. M. Osgood, will preach the first of a series of two sermons on "The Capitol of the Universe." This service will be followed by the communion of the Lord's Supper. The Sunday evening and Wednesday services will now begin at 7:30 instead of 8 o'clock. The pastor's sermon next Sunday evening will be of an evangelistic character, the subject will be "The Plan of Salvation."

At the September meeting of the Rockville Chamber of Commerce officers to serve for one year were chosen as follows: President, Donald A. DeLashmutt; vice-president, Leonard L. Nicholson, Jr.; secretary, Harold C. Smith: treasurer, Wm. F. Prettyman; executive committee, W. Valentine Wilson, W. Ernest Offutt, George H. Lamar, Curtis T. Ward, W. Guy Hicks, James D. Nicholson and J. Harry Gormley. George H. Lamar, George L. Edmonds and Harold C. Smith were named as delegates to represent the chamber at the meetings of the Montgomery County Civic Federation, and Hugh C. Bickford, J. Roger Spates and Donald A. DeLashmutt were made alternates. George H Lamar, F. Barnard Welsh and Edgar Reed were named a committee to prepare resolutions upon the death of Dr. Otis M. Linthicum, an active member of the chamber, and the president was authorized to name a date and make preparations for the first annual banquet of the organization.

Clipped By:
OneOldNewspaperFan
Feb 18, 2026

Copyright © 2026 Newspapers.com. All Rights Reserved.